

World News – Info & helpful sources

Task:

- Prepare a presentation on the news of the week.
- Pick some headlines that were quite important and say what they mean.
→ Tip: It's always good to have visual support (pictures, graphs, table, ...)
- Pick one or two headlines that interest you most or that you think are important to know more about. Find out a little bit more about the topic(s) and tell the class about it.
- Make sure to provide sources for all your material.

→ Time to present: ≈ 5-10 minutes + discussion ["Eine Tagesschau-Viertelstunde"]

Helpful sources:

Overview:

<https://www.bbc.com/news/av/10462520/one-minute-world-news>

→ Bite-size news in one minute; refreshed every few hours

<https://edition.cnn.com/cnn10>

→ Bite-size news in ten minutes; once a day [if you cannot find the latest, check the timezone]

<https://www.aljazeera.com/news/>

→ Short videos on different topics of the day

<https://www.rt.com/news/>

→ different media on topics of the day

<https://www.nytimes.com/video>

→ short videos on very different topics, not only of the day, also background information

Opinions:

<http://www.cc.com/shows/the-daily-show-with-trevor-noah>

→ American late-night talk and news satire television program

Economist Podcast - The Intelligence

→ "each episode digs past the headlines to get to the stories beneath—and to stories that aren't making headlines, but should be"

Links: Apple Podcasts – Spotify – Google Podcasts

